Tilburg University

Tilburg University is a top-ranked research university in the south of Holland. Focused on 'understanding society', the University offers an education where you can make an impact and be part of a peaceful campus community.

A modern, welcoming campus

With its peaceful, green campus, Tilburg is the perfect place to focus on your studies. Beautiful woodland, green open spaces and a lake on campus create a calming environment to study or relax with friends. This campus has everything you need. You will find modern lecture halls, a library, e-learning centres, restaurants and cafés, and excellent sports facilities. Tilburg city centre itself is small, relaxed and student friendly. There is also a beach and safari park nearby. For the big city experience, you can easily take a day trip to Amsterdam or Rotterdam.

Connect with industry

You will have many opportunities to build your business network during your studies. The annual careers fair, Economics Business weeks Tilburg, is one of the largest on-campus recruitment events in the Netherlands. Join workshops or presentations and connect with companies such as L'Oréal, KPMG, ING Bank, ExxonMobil and Deloitte.

"The international experience here is amazing because the class is pretty small. You really get to know every person in the class. Here we care about each other and we are all friends.
