Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

Founded in 1880, this top research university encourages a broad education and worldview – its name literally translates to 'Free University'.

Fast-paced business setting

VU Amsterdam is an urban campus university based in one of Holland's fastest-growing business districts, Zuidas. A financial hub with high-tech office space, Zuidas attracts big companies including Google, Mitsubishi, Boeing and Nikon. As a student at VU Amsterdam, you can use this inspiring location as an opportunity to network with businesses and find work opportunities.

Real-life learning

Thanks to its partnerships with major companies, VU Amsterdam teaches you how to apply your skills and knowledge to the real world. You can explore your career options with work placements and internships during your degree, or even study a semester in another country. For advice, workshops and one-to-one coaching, you can book an appointment with the University's career service.

Student accommodation in Amsterdam

Studying in Holland is a new and exciting experience, and living with other students is the best way to experience student life and make new friends. We recommend you stay in The Student Hotel to help you make the most of living and studying in Amsterdam. You will be surrounded by a lively student community in a modern, fun and stylish place to live.

"The location is very strategic. It is really nearby the business district and living here in Amsterdam is also a very nice opportunity for me. There are also a lot of communities where you can actually get in touch with people from different nationalities and cultures. They provide a very good platform to build your future career.
